Several Saxons, Tartars Working At Summer Jobs

All vacationing Tartars and Saxons won't be enjoying the healthful rays of "old sol" while basking on the beaches this summer. Many will be accumulating those much desired "forty pieces of silver."

This task will be done by various forms of manual labor, such as George Hurly, who will help shopping housewives with their daily grocery purchases at Jim Dandy market.

Judy Slater is another who will be exerting her energies in the form of work. She is employed at a dime store in Redondo, and will use her earnings to take a trip to Hawaii sometime in December.

Dee Gibson, can be found at Torrance Park assisting in the recreation department.

Any THS student wishing to let the HERALD know of his summer activities may phone Thelma Smith at FA 8-4000.
